FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Keystone State Chapter, Association of Former Intelligence Officers, has scheduled a dinner meeting at 6:00 p.m., March 10, 1979, at the Penn Harris Motor Inn, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Colonel Randy Welch, USA, retired, and President, Keystone State Chapter said that the Honorable Frank C. Carlucci, Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency will be the after-dinner speaker. Mr. Carlucci will speak on the current world political situation and problems affecting the intelligence community.

Mr. Carlucci was sworn in as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence on February 10, 1978.

A native of Scranton, Pennsylvania, Mr. Carlucci graduated from Princeton University in 1952. He served as a Lieutenant (Junior Grade) in the Navy from 1952 to 1954. He attended Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration 1954-1955, and then spent one year with the Jantzen Company in Portland, Oregon.

He joined the Foreign Service in 1956 and was assigned to the position of Vice Consul and Economic Officer in Johannesburg, South Africa where he served from 1957-1959, followed by a tour of duty as Second Secretary and Political Officer, Kinshasa, Congo 1960-1962. From 1962 to 1964, he was Officer in Charge, Congolese Political Affairs; 1964-1965 Consul General, Zanzibar; 1965-1969 Counselor for Political Affairs, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

From 1969 to 1970, Mr. Carlucci served as Assistant Director for Operations, Office of Economic Opportunity and from January to September 1971 as Director of O.E.O. In 1971, he was appointed Associate Director, Office of Management and Budget, followed by appointment as Deputy Director. From 1972 to 1974, he served as Under Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mr. Carlucci was appointed United States Ambassador to Portugal in December 1974 and served in that position for three years. He is a Career Minister in the Foreign Service.

He has received the following awards:

State Department Superior Service Award, 1962

State Department Superior Honor Award, 1969

HEW Distinguished Service Award, 1974

Defense Department Distinguished Civilian Service Award, 1977

Wilkes College, Honorary Doctorate, 1973

Kings College, Honorary Doctorate, 1975

The Association of Former Intelligence Officers is the only organization of its type whose members represent the entire intelligence community; drawing its members from ex-CIA officers, Defense Intelligence Agency, the military services, FBI, National Security Agency, State Department, USS and the Treasury Department. Col. Randy Welch, USA, Ret., President of the PA Chapter states that while the furor over U. S. Intelligence activities may have slipped from the front pages, the need for public understanding and support for intelligence still remains. The association's purpose is to spread the word about the positive side of intelligence work.

The general public is invited to hear Mr. Carlucci speak at approximately 7:45 p.m.
